Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 22, to Saturday October 26, 1782.

St. James's, October 25.

YESTERDAY being the Anniverſary of the King's Acceſſion to the Throne, when His Majeſty entered into the Twenty-third Year of His Reign, there was a very numerous and ſplendid Appearance of the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, to compliment His Majeſty upon the Occaſion. At One o'Clock the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired; and in the Evening there were Illuminations, and other public Demonſtrations of Joy, in London and Weſtminſter.

Whitehall, October 26.

Extracts of Letters from the Right Honourable General Elliott, Governor of Gibraltar, dated Gibraltar, September 11 and 12, 1782, and received at the Office of the Right Honourable Thomas Townſhend, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, October 24.

September 11.

AN Attempt to try the Effect of a heavy Fire from our Batteries with Carcaſſes, hot Shot and Shells, upon the Enemy's Firſt eſtabliſhed Advanced-Works and Batteries, ſeemed ſo very practicable, that the Commanding Officer of Artillery was immediately directed to take the Lieutenant General's Orders for that Purpoſe. In conſequence the Arrangement was very judiciouſly made, and completely executed by the Artillery Officers. The Firing having commenced on the 8th Inſtant, at Seven o'Clock in the Morning, by Ten o'Clock their Mahon Battery, conſiſting of Six Pieces of Ordnance, and One adjoining of Two Guns, were ſet on Fire, and by Five o'Clock P. M. were entirely conſumed, with Gun Carriages, Platforms, and Magazines, Bomb Proof. Part of the Communication to the Eaſtern Parallel, and the Trenches and Parapet for Muſquetry in Front of the Battery, were alſo deſtroyed. The Thirteen Gun Battery, next the Bay, was ſo much damaged, being on Fire in ſeveral Places, that the Enemy were put to the Neceſſity of taking down One Half of it, which they have now begun to re-eſtabliſh. The Succeſs not only much exceeded my Expectations, but had the happieſt Effects in other Reſpects, as it provoked the Enemy to open their new Mortar Batteries, and recommence a Fire from their Forts and Lines, for which they ſeemed by no Means prepared. The Enemy's Loſs in our Sight was very conſiderable, as their Endeavours to ſtop the Progreſs of the Flames laid them open to a very ſevere and well-directed Fire. Notwithſtanding the great Number of the Enemy's Shot and Shells, we ſuffered no material Loſs.

The next Morning by Day-break the Enemy opened their new Sixty-four Gun Battery upon us, with all their Mortars, and continued to fire without Intermiſſion from thence, as well as from their Lines, (their whole Artillery amounting to about 100 Pieces of Cannon, and 60 Mortars) ſeemingly by Way of Retaliation, it being the general Opinion their Preparations were not ſufficiently compleat to begin this powerful Attack, which, however formidable in Appearance, I will venture to aſſure, that the Impreſſion upon our Works as yet is ſcarcely perceptible.

On the ſame Day the Enemy's Squadron, conſiſting of Seven Sail of the Line Spaniſh, and Two French, with a large Frigate and a Xebeque, taking the Advantage of a Levant Wind, got under Sail from the Orange Grove, and one of them, paſſing very cloſe within Random Shot fired many Guns upon the South Battion and Ragged Staff, continuing his Cannonade until he got beyond Europa. The Squadron then went to the Eaſtward of the Rock, and formed in a Line, (the Admiral leading) came before the Batteries of Europa, and under a very ſlow Sail commenced a Fire from all their Guns, until the laſt Ship had paſſed. They repeated this Manœuvre at Two o'Clock the following Morning, and again in the Forenoon of the ſame Day. Theſe ſucceſſive Cannonades did not any Ways damage the Works. Some of the leading Ships came pretty near the Point the firſt Attack, but having been frequently ſtruck by our Shot they afterwards kept at a greater Diſtance. Two of the Spaniſh Ships went early in that Morning to Algaziras, to repair, as we imagine. All the Batteries at Europa were manned by the Marine Brigade, (incamped there) with a ſmall Proportion of Artilleriſts. The Guns were extremely well laid and pointed; the Whole under the immediate Command of Brigadier Curtis.

About Five in the Afternoon of the ſame Day Sixteen of the Enemy's Gun Boats came over from Algaziras, formed in a Line, and fired upon the Garriſon. Our Batteries obliged them to retire, in leſs than Half an Hour, not without ſome of them having ſuffered, as there is Reaſon to ſuppoſe.

September 12.

The Enemy continues his heavy Fire from the Iſthmus; laſt Night the Gun and Mortar Boats repeated their Attack. Nobody hurt by their Fire.

The Wind having come to the Weſtward, there is all Probability the Enemy will determine upon his final Attack by Sea in a very ſhort Time.

The Enemy has made no further Approach in his Land Attack ſince Yeſterday.

Whitehall, October 26.

THE following Letter has been written, purſuant to His Majeſty's expreſs Command, by the Right Honourable Thomas Townſhend, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department:

Whitehall, October 22, 1782.

To the Chairman of the Seſſions of the Peace for the County of Middleſex.

SIR,

HIS Majeſty being very much concerned at the frequent Robberies and Diſorders of late committed in the Streets of London and Weſtminſter, and and Parts adjacent, and being informed that they are greatly to be imputed to the Encouragement given to Rogues and their Accomplices, by Perſons who keep Night-houſes and Cellars, which are reſorted to by great Numbers of looſe and diſorderly Perſons; and that the Gaming-houſes, as alſo the Places where Strong Liquors are drunk to Exceſs, contribute much to the Corruption of the Morals of thoſe of an inferior Rank, and to the leading them into theſe wicked Courſes, has commanded me to recommend it, in His Name, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, to the Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Middleſex, to employ their utmoſt Care and Vigilance in preventing and ſuppreſſing theſe Diſorders, by holding frequent Petty Seſſions for this Purpoſe in their ſeveral Pariſhes, or other Diviſions, by calling before them the High Conſtables and other proper Officers under their Direction, and giving them the ſtricteſt Orders and Warrants, from Time to Time, as there ſhall be Occaſion, to ſearch for and apprehend Rogues, Vagabonds, idle and diſorderly Perſons, in order to their being dealt with according to Law; and likewiſe to proceed with Rigour as well againſt all Perſons harbouring ſuch Offenders, as againſt thoſe who keep the ſaid Night-houſes or Cellars, Tippling or common Gaming-houſes, or who practice or encourage unlawful Gaming.

And His Majeſty having very much at Heart the Performance of this Service, wherein the Honor of His Government, the Preſervation of the Peace, and the Safety of His Subjects are ſo much concerned, does further require the ſaid Juſtices in their reſpective Seſſions to draw up in Writing, from Time to Time, an Account of their Proceedings herein, inſerting the Names of the Juſtices attending ſuch Meetings, and of the Peace Officers whom they ſhall employ, taking particular Notice of the Zeal and Diligence of each of them in the Performance of his Duty; which Accounts are to be tranſmitted from the ſaid ſeveral Seſſions to One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before His Majeſty; who being informed of their Behaviour may reward ſuch of them as ſhall diſtinguiſh themſelves in the faithful and diligent Execution of their Office; His Majeſty not doubting but the Juſtices, on their Part, will take Care to puniſh with Rigour, as by Law they may, thoſe who ſhall appear to have been guilty of Corruption or Negligence therein.

You will be pleaſed to acquaint the Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid County, and all others whom it may concern, with His Majeſty's Pleaſure, that the ſame may be duly and punctually complied with.

I am, &c.

T. TOWNSHEND.

Letters to the like Effect have alſo been written to the Lord Mayor of London, to his Grace the High Steward of Weſtminſter, the Chairman of the Seſſions of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, and likewiſe for the County of Surry at St. Margaret's Hill.

East-India House, October 24, 1782.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies do hereby give Notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall-street, on Thursday next, the 31st Instant, from Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon until Six in the Evening, for the Determination, by Ballot, of the following Question, viz.

"That it appears to this Court from incontestible Evidence, drawn from the Records of the Company, and supported by the unanimous Opinion of the House of Commons, that the War in which we are now engaged with the Marattas, "was "evidently founded on the Sentiments of the "Court of Directors, conveying Demands on the "Maratta Administration, greatly exceeding the "Conditions of the Treaty of Poorunder, which "Sentiments of the Court of Directors opened the "first Design of sending a Detachment from Ben-"gal to the Malabar Coast;" and that consequently it would be the Height of Injustice to lay the Blame of that War, or the Evils which have flowed from it, upon Mr. Hastings; when it appears, "That the Dissatisfaction of the Court of Direct-"ors, expressed at the Treaty of Poorunder, in "their Letters to Bengal of the 5th of February, "and to Bombay of the 16th of April, 1777, gave "the strongest Encouragement to both Presidencies "to seize the slightest Pretence of Provocation from "the Ministers of the Maratta States, to renew "their Engagements with Ragoba;" neither have the Measures adopted by Mr. Hastings, in Consequence of such Instructions, ever received the slightest Censure from the said Court of Directors. In Consideration whereof, it is now recommended to the Court of Directors to rescind their late Resolution respecting the Removal of Warren Hastings, Esq; Governor-General of Bengal, more especially as it appears to this Court, that according to the last official Dispatches from Bengal, dated the 8th of April, 1782, the Prospect of Peace with the Marattas was then propitious, because, cauſe it ſeemed to be wiſhed for by all the Maratta States, becauſe Hoſtilities with them had ceaſed for many Months, and that a Peace had actually been concluded with Mahdajee Scindia, one of the principal Chiefs of that Confederacy; and, further, that the Government-General of Bengal were uſing every Means in their Power to effect a general Pacification; and that the Conduct of the ſaid Government-General, tending to produce a general Pacification, or to unite and ſupport, by powerful Reſources, a general Confederacy of the Country Powers to defeat the Combination of Hyder Ally and the French, (ſuppoſing the ſaid Hyder Ally ſhall not accept of the reaſonable Terms of Accommodation, which have been offered to him in Conſequence of his Propoſals for Peace,) merits the warmeſt Approbation of this Court; and that therefore it would be evidently injurious to the Intereſts of the Company, and the Nation, to remove any of thoſe principal Servants of the Company, now diſcharging their Duty with ſuch uncommon Exertions, Ability, and Unanimity, or to ſhake the Authority repoſed in them by the Legiſlature and the Company, at a Period ſo critical, when the Proſperity of the Britiſh Intereſts in India will depend, in a great Meaſure, on the Confidence which the native Princes of the Country may place in the Government-General of Bengal.'

Admiralty-Office, September 17, 1782.

NOtice is hereby given, That a Seſſion of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas within the Juriſdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held on Wedneſday the 30th of October next, at Juſtice-Hall in the Old Bailey, London, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning.
